

Roger William "Fidget" Dvorak, 68, of Le Center, died Thursday, January 28, 2016 at his home. Visitation will be held on Thursday, February 4, 2016 from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. at the Schoenbauer Funeral Home concluding with a prayer service by Father David Barrett with military honors by the Montgomery Honor Guard. In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred.

Fidget was born December 21, 1947 in New Prague to William and Carolyn (Dietz) Dvorak. He graduated from Montgomery High School and served in the U.S. Army from 1968 to 1970. Fidget was united in marriage to Dianna K. Eichler at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church in Montgomery in 1971. Fidget enjoyed his family, horses, dogs, ice fishing and nature.

Fidget is survived by his wife, Dianna Dvorak of Le Center; children, Michael Roger Dvorak of Le Center, Andrew Roger Dvorak of Cleveland, and Kelli Dvorak-Kielty of Kasota; grandson, Nathan Bradley Kielty; mother, Carolyn Dvorak of Montgomery; and brother, Kurt (Joy Svoboda) Dvorak of Montgomery.

Fidget is preceded in death by his father, William Dvorak; and sister Faye.
